

Delivering News Fast

Bigger & Better: HealthyDunia.com announces 2nd edition of India Health & Wellness Awards 2015 presented by Mother Dairy to be held on September 10

September 2, 2015Hollywood

New Delhi, Sep 2015: After a game-changing first edition that offered a new platform to the industry and policy makers to discuss major issues dogging Indian healthcare, India Health & Wellness Summit & Awards is returning this year with a bigger agenda for dialogue, a wider approach to recognizing front runners and much larger scale of participation from all quarters.

HealthyDunia.com, the fastest growing health and wellness information portal is proud to announce the 2nd India Health & Wellness Summit & Awards 2015 presented by Mother Dairy to be held on September 10, 2015 at Hotel Taj Palace in the capital.

This year the IHW Summit has focused on increased participation from the government and public health departments to enable a full-fledged dialogue between multiple stakeholders in the sector. Minister for Road Transport and Highways Mr. Nitin Gadakari; Minister of State (Independent Charge) for Culture, Tourism Dr. Mahesh Sharma; Minister Of Health & Family Welfare, Maharashtra Shri Deepak Sawant; Deputy Chief Minister & Minister of Health, Goa Francis Dsouza, are among key speakers from the Central and state governments.

India Health & Wellness Summit and Awards is determined to play a key role in devising and nurturing ideas that can help make healthcare 'accessible and affordable'. The platform also promises to honor innovators who propose ideas and establish avenues to meet the diverse healthcare needs of our billion plus population.

With over 20 awards in multiple categories such as healthcare delivery, innovation and lifesaving technologies, the event will follow a rigorous selection process manned by an eminent jury, including some of the biggest names from Indian healthcare companies, doctors, scientists, experts, media representatives, government sector and social leaders.

India Health & Wellness Summit & Awards 2015 will feature much-loved South African singer and UN Goodwill Ambassador for UNICEF and Roll Back Malaria, Yvonne Chaka Chaka. She is expected to share the African perspective with an aim to explore possibilities of greater cooperation with India.

“We took a dedicated initiative when we launched India Health & Wellness Awards last year. Encouraged with the success of our debut and the overwhelming response it got from all stakeholders, we are back in a bigger and better avatar this year. The 2015 edition of IHW Summit & Awards will see several new segments designed to make it more comprehensive, effective and outcome oriented. This year, we have also planned a ministerial session that will have Ministers of Health & Family Welfare from selected states to discuss their respective experiences and facilitate exchange of ideas,” said Mr. Kamal Narayan Omer, Director, Blue Pen Media, Organizer of IHW Summit & Awards.

“Be it doctors, service providers, policy makers, innovators or corporate, a lot of people have shown interest in participating in the event and contributing towards finding a new ground which can spawn new ideas, approaches and partnerships. We are aware of the fact that India faces myriad health challenges which can neither be resolved by focusing on just the urban elite nor be addressed by turning all attention to the under privileged. We need a balance in our approach and better public-private partnerships. We hope over the years, IHW will become a fountainhead of new ideas,” said Dr. Bobby John, Managing Director, Aequitas Consulting and Curator of the IHW Summit.

The IHW Summit & Awards 2015 is being supported by Mother Dairy, Gaudium IVF, KV Developers, EBIX Adam India, Indian Spinal Injuries Centre, Paras Healthcare, Global Health Advocates India, NATHEALTH, Association of Healthcare Providers of India (AHPI), JCKRC Spa Destination Pvt. Ltd., Impact Investors Council, World Simulation Society (WSS) & Aequitas Consulting. The Outdoor Media Partner is Prabhatam Group while the Legal Partner is Trust Legal.

The scale of the summit has clearly widened in a year. This year will see 20 speakers participate in six high powered sessions, 600 national and international delegates brainstorm over matters of importance in a communion of decision makers from the industry, government, non-profit-sector and all other stakeholders to address the opportunities for and the challenges to improvement of healthcare outcomes in India.

Additionally, the forum will have a healthcare entrepreneurship session with thought leaders and entrepreneurs discussing demand-driven innovations that are transforming healthcare, and scalable strategies that empower those living at 'the last mile'.

Other speakers at the conclave include Nanda Kumar, Chairman, National Dairy Development Board; Sanjiv Navangul, MD, Janssen India; Dr. T. S. Kler, Director & HOD Cardiology, Fortis Escorts Heart Institute; Shobana Kamineni, Executive Vice-Chairperson, Apollo Hospitals Enterprise; Dr. Ramakanta Panda, Vice Chairman & MD, Asian Heart Institute; Sandeep Farias, Founder & Managing Director, Elevar Equity; Dr. Manika Khanna, Founder & Managing Director, Gaudium IVF.

<http://dailyindiamail.com/?p=49858>

CEO Symposium on 'Redefining Hospital Management Eminence 2.0' at IIM Bangalore

Updated by: Nidhi Bahl on 04 Sep. 2015

IIM Bangalore's Executive Education Programme (EEP) on 'Redefining Hospital Management Eminence 2.0', a CEO Symposium of healthcare in partnership with Johnson & Johnson

As a part of the Indian Institute of Management Bangalore's \(IIMB's\) Executive Education Programme (EEP) on 'Redefining Hospital Management Eminence 2.0' a CEO Symposium of healthcare thought leaders was hosted, in partnership with Johnson & Johnson, on 1st September between 4.00 pm and 6.00 pm at the IIMB campus.

Dr. Chirantan Chatterjee, Program Director and Faculty Member at IIMB said: "The programme, specially designed for CEOs, CXOs, senior hospital managers, hospital function heads and hospital administrators, among others, aims to enable modern quality-centric paradigms in the context of traditional hospital management approaches. The symposium provided the participants an opportunity to interact with the industry thought leaders and get a real time understanding of various issues in hospital management, namely strategy, finance, operations, organizational behavior and human resource management."

The panelists included Mr. Sushobhan Dasgupta, Managing Director, Johnson & Johnson Medical India & President - NATHEALTH, Ms. Meena Ganesh, MD & CEO, Portea Medical, Mr. Gautam Khanna, Chief Executive Officer, P D Hinduja National Hospital & MRC, Dr. Ajaikumar, Founder & Chairman, HCG (Healthcare Global Enterprises), Dr Sharan Patil, Chairman, Sparsh Hospitals, Mr.

Swami Swaminathan, Executive Chairman, Manipal Health Enterprises. Mr. Anjan Bose, Secretary General, NATHEALTH & Former President, Philips Healthcare, India, moderated the discussion.

The panelists, while offering an overview of the country's healthcare management ecosystem, broadly discussed 'Ethics, Image & Quality of Healthcare in India', 'Creating & Retaining Talent & Skilling Indian Healthcare', 'Digitizing Indian Healthcare & Improving Access' and touched on the tradeoffs between patient welfare and hyperactivism in the context of healthcare regulation in India. They also touched upon patient centricity, disruptive models in healthcare and medical entrepreneurship. In recent times, the panelists observed, medical establishments including hospitals, clinics and rehabilitation centres were being looked upon as edifices of hope. Yet while they operate as organized institutions, handling complex processes and efficient practices while managing cost effectiveness - quality healthcare remained a huge challenge and a key policy concern in the country.

The panel appreciated the integral role that media plays in healthcare. It stressed on the need to partner with media to more proactively communicate the good practices followed in healthcare industry for patient welfare.

<http://www.htcampus.com/article/ceo-symposium-redefining-hospital-management-eminence-20-iim-bangalore/>

भारतीय प्रबंध संस्थान बेंगलूर
INDIAN INSTITUTE OF MANAGEMENT
BANGALORE

CEO Symposium on 'Redefining Hospital Management Eminence 2.0' at IIMB

Wednesday, September 2, 2015

Bengaluru, 1st September 2015: As a part of the Indian Institute of Management Bangalore's (IIMB's) Executive Education Programme (EEP) on 'Redefining Hospital Management Eminence 2.0' a CEO Symposium of healthcare thought leaders was hosted, in partnership with Johnson & Johnson, on 1st September between 4.00 pm and 6.00 pm at the IIMB campus.

Dr. Chirantan Chatterjee, Program Director and Faculty Member at IIMB said: "The program, specially designed for CEOs, CXOs, senior hospital managers, hospital function heads and hospital administrators, among others, aims to enable modern quality-centric paradigms in the context of traditional hospital management approaches. The symposium provided the participants an opportunity to interact with the industry thought leaders and get a real time understanding of various issues in hospital management, namely strategy, finance, operations, organizational behavior and human resource management."

The panelists included Mr. Sushobhan Dasgupta, Managing Director, Johnson & Johnson Medical India & President - NATHEALTH, Ms. Meena Ganesh, MD & CEO, Portea Medical, Mr. Gautam Khanna, Chief Executive Officer, P D Hinduja National Hospital & MRC, Dr. Ajaikumar, Founder & Chairman, HCG (Healthcare Global Enterprises), Dr. Sharan Patil, Chairman, Sparsh Hospitals, Mr. Swami Swaminathan, Executive Chairman, Manipal Health Enterprises. Mr. Anjan Bose, Secretary General, NATHEALTH & Former President, Philips Healthcare, India, moderated the discussion.

The panelists, while offering an overview of the country's healthcare management ecosystem, broadly discussed 'Ethics, Image & Quality of Healthcare in India', 'Creating & Retaining Talent & Skilling Indian Healthcare', 'Digitizing Indian Healthcare & Improving Access' and touched on the tradeoffs between patient welfare and hyperactivism in the context of healthcare regulation in India. They also touched upon patient centricity, disruptive models in healthcare and medical entrepreneurship. In recent times, the panelists observed, medical establishments including hospitals, clinics and rehabilitation centres were being looked upon as edifices of hope. Yet while they operate as organized institutions, handling complex processes and efficient practices while managing cost effectiveness - quality healthcare remained a huge challenge and a key policy concern in the country. The panel appreciated the integral role that media plays in healthcare. It stressed on the need to partner with media to more proactively communicate the good practices followed in healthcare industry for patient welfare.

(L-R) Dr. Sharan Shivaraj Patil, Chairman & Chief Orthopaedic Surgeon, Sparsh Hospitals, Dr. B.S. Ajai Kumar, Founder Chairman of HCG – Healthcare Global Enterprises and Gautam Khanna, CEO, PD Hinduja Hospital and Medical Research Centre, Mumbai during 'Redefining Hospital Management Eminence 2.0' at IIMB.

Swami D. Swaminathan, Executive Chairman Manipal Health Enterprises & Chairman, Manipal Integrated Services, Meena Ganesh, MD & CEO, Portea and Sushobhan Dasgupta, Managing Director, Johnson & Johnson Medical India & Vice President Diabetes Care, Johnson & Johnson Asia Pacific at the CEO Symposium.

<http://www.iimb.ernet.in/node/7421>

CEO Symposium on 'Redefining Hospital Management Eminence 2.0' at IIM Bangalore

Bengaluru: As a part of the Indian Institute of Management Bangalore's (IIMB's) Executive Education Programme (EEP) on 'Redefining Hospital Management Eminence 2.0' a CEO Symposium of healthcare thought leaders was hosted, in partnership with Johnson & Johnson, on 1st September between 4.00 pm and 6.00 pm at the IIMB campus.

Dr. Chirantan Chatterjee, Program Director and Faculty Member at IIMB said: "The program, specially designed for CEOs, CXOs, senior hospital managers, hospital function heads and hospital administrators, among others, aims to enable modern quality-centric paradigms in the context of traditional hospital management approaches. The symposium provided the participants an opportunity to interact with the industry thought leaders and get a real time understanding of various issues in hospital management, namely strategy, finance, operations, organizational behavior and human resource management."

The panelists included Mr. Sushobhan Dasgupta, Managing Director, Johnson & Johnson Medical India & President - NATHEALTH, Ms. Meena Ganesh, MD & CEO, Portea Medical, Mr. Gautam Khanna, Chief Executive Officer, P D Hinduja National Hospital & MRC, Dr. Ajaikumar, Founder & Chairman, HCG (Healthcare Global Enterprises), Dr Sharan Patil, Chairman, Sparsh Hospitals, Mr. Swami Swaminathan, Executive Chairman, Manipal Health Enterprises. Mr. Anjan Bose, Secretary General, NATHEALTH & Former President, Philips Healthcare, India, moderated the discussion.

The panelists, while offering an overview of the country's healthcare management ecosystem, broadly discussed 'Ethics, Image & Quality of Healthcare in India', 'Creating & Retaining Talent & Skilling Indian Healthcare', 'Digitizing Indian Healthcare & Improving Access' and touched on the tradeoffs between patient welfare and hyperactivism in the context of healthcare regulation in India. They also touched upon patient centricity, disruptive models in healthcare and medical entrepreneurship. In recent times, the panelists observed, medical establishments including hospitals, clinics and rehabilitation centres were being looked upon as edifices of hope. Yet while they operate as organized institutions, handling complex processes and efficient practices while managing cost effectiveness - quality healthcare remained a huge challenge and a key policy concern in the country. The panel appreciated the integral role that media plays in healthcare. It stressed on the need to partner with media to more proactively communicate the good practices followed in healthcare industry for patient welfare.

<http://indiaeducationdiary.in/Shownews.asp?newsid=35742>

CEO Symposium on 'Redefining Hospital Management Eminence 2.0' at IIM Bangalore

Wednesday, September 02, 2015

Bengaluru: As a part of the Indian Institute of Management Bangalore's (IIMB's) Executive Education Programme (EEP) on 'Redefining Hospital Management Eminence 2.0' a CEO Symposium of healthcare thought leaders was hosted, in partnership with Johnson & Johnson, on 1st September between 4.00 pm and 6.00 pm at the IIMB campus.

Dr. Chirantan Chatterjee, Program Director and Faculty Member at IIMB said: "The program, specially designed for CEOs, CXOs, senior hospital managers, hospital function heads and hospital administrators, among others, aims to enable modern quality-centric paradigms in the context of traditional hospital management approaches. The symposium provided the participants an opportunity to interact with the industry thought leaders and get a real time understanding of various issues in hospital management, namely strategy, finance, operations, organizational behavior and human resource management."

The panelists included Mr. Sushobhan Dasgupta, Managing Director, Johnson & Johnson Medical India & President - NATHEALTH, Ms. Meena Ganesh, MD & CEO, Portea Medical, Mr. Gautam Khanna, Chief Executive Officer, P D Hinduja National Hospital & MRC, Dr. Ajaikumar, Founder & Chairman, HCG (Healthcare Global Enterprises), Dr Sharan Patil, Chairman, Sparsh Hospitals, Mr. Swami Swaminathan, Executive Chairman, Manipal Health Enterprises. Mr. Anjan Bose, Secretary General, NATHEALTH & Former President, Philips Healthcare, India, moderated the discussion.

The panelists, while offering an overview of the country's healthcare management ecosystem, broadly discussed 'Ethics, Image & Quality of Healthcare in India', 'Creating & Retaining Talent & Skilling Indian Healthcare', 'Digitizing Indian Healthcare & Improving Access' and touched on the tradeoffs between patient welfare and hyperactivism in the context of healthcare regulation in India. They also touched upon patient centricity, disruptive models in healthcare and medical entrepreneurship. In recent times, the panelists observed, medical establishments including hospitals, clinics and rehabilitation centres were being looked upon as edifices of hope. Yet while they operate as organized institutions, handling complex processes and efficient practices while managing cost effectiveness - quality healthcare remained a huge challenge and a key policy concern in the country. The panel appreciated the integral role that media plays in healthcare. It stressed on the need to partner with media to more proactively communicate the good practices followed in healthcare industry for patient welfare.

<http://indiaeducationdiary.in/showiim.asp?newsid=35742>

Bigger & Better: HealthyDunia.com announces 2nd edition of India Health & Wellness Awards 2015 presented by Mother Dairy to be held on September 10

Category: Latest

Road Transport and Highways Minister Mr. Nitin Gadakari, Minister of State (Independent Charge) for Culture, Tourism Dr. Mahesh Sharma, Minister Of Health & Family Welfare, Maharashtra Shri Deepak Sawant, Deputy Chief Minister & Minister Of Health, Goa Francis Dsouza, among key speakers

600 delegates, 20 speakers over 6 power-packed sessions and 20 awards

Much-loved South African Singer & UN Goodwill Ambassador Yvonne Chaka Chaka to participate in the deliberations

New Delhi, Sep 03, 2015: After a game-changing first edition that offered a new platform to the industry and policy makers to discuss major issues dogging Indian healthcare, India Health & Wellness Summit & Awards is returning this year with a bigger agenda for dialogue, a wider approach to recognizing front runners and much larger scale of participation from all quarters.

HealthyDunia.com, the fastest growing health and wellness information portal is proud to announce the 2nd India Health & Wellness Summit & Awards 2015 presented by Mother Dairy to be held on September 10, 2015 at Hotel Taj Palace in the capital.

This year the IHW Summit has focused on increased participation from the government and public health departments to enable a full-fledged dialogue between multiple stakeholders in the sector. Minister for Road Transport and Highways Mr. Nitin Gadakari; Minister of State (Independent Charge) for Culture, Tourism Dr. Mahesh Sharma; Minister Of Health & Family Welfare, Maharashtra Shri Deepak Sawant; Deputy Chief Minister & Minister of Health, Goa Francis Dsouza, are among key speakers from the Central and state governments.

India Health & Wellness Summit and Awards is determined to play a key role in devising and nurturing ideas that can help make healthcare 'accessible and affordable'. The platform also promises to honor innovators who propose ideas and establish avenues to meet the diverse healthcare needs of our billion plus population.

With over 20 awards in multiple categories such as healthcare delivery, innovation and lifesaving technologies, the event will follow a rigorous selection process manned by an eminent jury, including some of the biggest names from Indian healthcare companies, doctors, scientists, experts, media representatives, government sector and social leaders.

India Health & Wellness Summit & Awards 2015 will feature much-loved South African singer and UN Goodwill Ambassador for UNICEF and Roll Back Malaria, Yvonne Chaka Chaka. She is expected to share the African perspective with an aim to explore possibilities of greater cooperation with India.

“We took a dedicated initiative when we launched India Health & Wellness Awards last year. Encouraged with the success of our debut and the overwhelming response it got from all stakeholders, we are back in a bigger and better avatar this year. The 2015 edition of IHW Summit & Awards will see several new segments designed to make it more comprehensive, effective and outcome oriented. This year, we have also planned a ministerial session that will have Ministers of Health & Family Welfare from selected states to discuss their respective experiences and facilitate exchange of ideas,” said Mr. Kamal Narayan Omer, Director, Blue Pen Media, Organizer of IHW Summit & Awards.

“Be it doctors, service providers, policy makers, innovators or corporate, a lot of people have shown interest in participating in the event and contributing towards finding a new ground which can spawn new ideas, approaches and partnerships. We are aware of the fact that India faces myriad health challenges which can neither be resolved by focusing on just the urban elite nor be addressed by turning all attention to the under privileged. We need a balance in our approach and better public-private partnerships. We hope over the years, IHW will become a fountainhead of new ideas,” said Dr. Bobby John, Managing Director, Aequitas Consulting and Curator of the IHW Summit.

The IHW Summit & Awards 2015 is being supported by Mother Dairy, Gaudium IVF, KV Developers, EBIX Adam India, Indian Spinal Injuries Centre, Paras Healthcare, Global Health Advocates India, NATHEALTH, Association of Healthcare Providers of India (AHPI), JCKRC Spa Destination Pvt. Ltd., Impact Investors Council, World Simulation Society (WSS) & Aequitas Consulting. The Outdoor Media Partner is Prabhatam Group while the Legal Partner is Trust Legal.

The scale of the summit has clearly widened in a year. This year will see 20 speakers participate in six high powered sessions, 600 national and international delegates brainstorm over matters of importance in a communion of decision makers from the industry, government, non-profit-sector and all other stakeholders to address the opportunities for and the challenges to improvement of healthcare outcomes in India.

Additionally, the forum will have a healthcare entrepreneurship session with thought leaders and entrepreneurs discussing demand-driven innovations that are transforming healthcare, and scalable strategies that empower those living at ‘the last mile’.

Other speakers at the conclave include Nanda Kumar, Chairman, National Dairy Development Board; Sanjiv Navangul, MD, Janssen India; Dr. T. S. Kler, Director & HOD Cardiology, Fortis Escorts Heart Institute; Shobana Kamineni, Executive Vice-Chairperson, Apollo Hospitals Enterprise; Dr. Ramakanta Panda, Vice Chairman & MD, Asian Heart Institute; Sandeep Farias, Founder & Managing Director, Elevar Equity; Dr. Manika Khanna, Founder & Managing Director, Gaudium IVF.

For detailed list of categories, award website can be referred at www.indiahealthsummit.com
Corporate Comm India (CCI Newswire)

<http://www.thepharmatimes.in/index.php/extras/jstuff/content-views/category-list-view/1983-bigger-a-better-healthyduniacom-announces-2nd-edition-of-india-health-a-wellness-awards-2015-presented-by-mother-dairy-to-be-held-on-september-10>