

Rahul Khosla elected president of NATHEALTH

NATHEALTH is committed to implementing a plan to provide universal healthcare across India.

DTMT.Network
@drugtodayonline.com

New Delhi: Max Group CMD Rahul Khosla has been elected as the President and Dr. Lal PathLabs CMD Brig. Dr Arvind Lal, as the Senior Vice President of the Healthcare apex body, NATHEALTH.

Khosla, succeeds Sushobhan Dasgupta, MD, Johnson and Johnson Medical India, and VP, Diabetes Care Asia Pacific.

A NATHEALTH statement informs that GE Healthcare President & CEO, India & South Asia, Milan Rao, has been elected as the Vice-President, while BD Managing Director Varun Khanna is the new Secretary.

Daljit Singh of Fortis Healthcare has been elected as the Treasurer.

Speaking to DTMT, Rahul Khosla said, "At NATHEALTH, we have established a unique collaborative platform to usher progress healthcare as a priority sector. We look forward to developing and implementing a comprehensive plan to achieve the vision of universal and consistent healthcare in India."

Khosla further said that the government and private healthcare providers need to work in tandem to develop a cohesive blueprint for healthcare provision and funding.

"There are wonderful opportunities to improve infrastructure, talent, regional outreach and consistency in access, affordability and quality of the Indian healthcare ecosystem," the new president of NATHEALTH said.

"Private healthcare providers, with the help of government, need to work in tandem to develop a solid blueprint for healthcare provision and funding," Khosla added.