

Priyanka Aggarwal

Partner, Healthcare Practice, BCG India

Priyanka is a Partner and Director based in the Delhi office of BCG. She has 17 years of consulting experience and serves clients in Healthcare sector.

Across her consulting career, Priyanka has served clients across the healthcare spectrum – pharmaceutical companies, hospitals and medtech companies – on topics ranging from business strategy, operations transformation, procurement, sales and marketing and organisational effectiveness.

Priyanka has worked across multiple geographies including India, US and SE Asia. She is known for her passion for client impact, pushing the performance trajectory of her clients – and challenging the status-quo. Internally, she is firm but caring leader to her teams, inspiring the next generation of women to take their role in the corporate world with confidence.

She is the author many publications BCG Perspectives publication "Power to the Patient", BCG- Mint collaboration on "Health Systems Leapfrogging in India: A need and a possibility. She is a regular speaker at Healthcare conferences and is a member of NATHEALTH.

Priyanka graduated from IIM Ahmedabad in 2000 as a Gold Medalist, and completed her B.E. in Electronics & Communication from Delhi University (also a University Gold Medalist). She was selected as one of Corporate India's fastest rising women Leaders by Economic Times- Spencer Stuart in 2016.

Dr Shakti Kumar Gupta

Dr Shakti Kumar Gupta, Medical Superintendent, AIIMS (Dr RP Centre), New Delhi hails from a border Village Ari (LOC), Dist. Poonch, J&K State is an alumnus of Government Medical College, Jammu from where he did his MBBS and AIIMS New Delhi from where he obtained his Masters in Hospital Administration. Commencing his medical career at grass-root levels as an Assistant Surgeon in J&K Health Services, he provided curative, preventive, promotive and rehabilitative services at dispensary and primary healthcare centres. He actively facilitated implementation of national health programmes and submitted project reports for district and general hospitals. His quest for achieving professional excellence propelled him to relocate to AIIMS where he joined as a faculty.

He headed the Department of Hospital Administration at AIIMS and mentored more than 45 Postgraduate & PhD students, conducted 112 research studies, published more than 71 research papers published in several national and international journals of repute. He has also been the Principal Investigator of WHO projects on Public Hospital Governance: AIIMS-A case study; National Consultation on PPP; and Electronic Medical Records. The Department of Hospital Administration, under his leadership, had the honour of being the first Department of AIIMS to receive ISO Certification.

Dr. Gupta introduced Integrated Learning Module as a scientific pattern of teaching for aspiring hospital administrators. The module has been incorporated in other medical colleges conducting PG courses in Hospital Administration. He standardized Curriculum for PG courses in Hospital Administration in association with MCI and WHO. He has authored nine books on various aspects of Hospital administration viz. planning and designing, medical store management, best procurement practices, disaster management, infection control & disease outbreak management.

He is Fellow of National Academy of Medical Sciences, International Medical Sciences Academy, Academy of Hospital Administration, and Institute of Hospital Engineering. He has been the recipient of WHO Fellowship to study accident and emergency services at USA, and Management Development Programme of National University, Singapore.

He has also been the Programme Director for various healthcare capacity building programmes like "Healthcare Executive Management Development Programme" for senior healthcare professionals in collaboration with WHO, "National Initiative for Patient Safety", to propagate the culture of patient safety across the nation and "Best Procurement Practices for Hospitals" aimed at disseminating good procurement practices. Dr. Gupta has been nominated Member of Expert Committee of National Human Rights Commission to study the status of Emergency Medical Services and suggest measures for improvement. Based on his recommendations, 150 Trauma Centres are being established across the country.

He has been the Chairman of the Expert committee for Formulation of National Ambulance Code and Working Group on Emergency Care relating to Road Safety under Ministry of Road Transport and Highways. The National Ambulance code has been notified in the Gazette of India. Dr. Gupta is the founder President of Research Foundation of Hospital & Healthcare Administration (RFHHA)- a leading organization promoting research and training in Hospital and Healthcare management, President of the Academy of Hospital Administration, Editor of Journal Academy of Hospital Administration and Editor-in-Chief of International Journal of RFHHA since 2012. He is also been the Founder President of EMS Leaders Forum for providing a common platform for convergence of the global think-tank in the field of EMS. He was elected as Member of the Advisory Board of Centre for Health Systems Innovation & Entrepreneurship, Oklahoma State University, USA, National Accreditation Board for Hospital and Healthcare Providers, Task Force on Health Sector Reforms for J&K, Expert Group for establishing AIIMS like Institutions in the country. He is expert Consultant of Ministry of External Affairs for establishing 2 hospitals in Bhutan and Trauma Centre in Nepal. The projects of Bhutan and Nepal have actually translated into tertiary healthcare facilities.

He has also been the Consultant for UNOPS Asia Office to study "Procurement & Supply Management System" of Ministry of Health & Family Welfare, Govt of India and based on his report, US$ 121 million were released for HIV and TB programmes from UN Global Funds. He has been WHO consultant to the Govt. Of Nepal to study health systems and recommend measures for improvements; Consultant to Government of Goa to form a roadmap for best utilization of existing infrastructure; Consultant to the Govt. of Maharashtra for establishing EMS System; and Consultant to Govt. of Tripura and North East States for improvement in healthcare provisioning.

Dr Gupta was honoured with prestigious "PRATIBHASHI SAMMAN-2002", "CHIKITSA RATAN - 2010" and "SHRAM SREE-2010". Bestowed with the International Partner of the Year Award by Institute of Rescue Engineering and Civil Protection, Cologne, University of Applied Science, Germany. He became the first Indian to be awarded with this prestigious award of International significance. Dr. Gupta was conferred the State Award for meritorious public service on the eve of Republic Day by J&K Government.

PrachiShukla

PrachiShukla is the Country Director for India at World Health Partners and oversees all operations in the country and serves as a liaison between the state offices in India, donors, development partners and government. She has over 17 years work experience of leading and managing large social sector programs aimed at improving health of the poor in partnership with communities, government, development agencies and private sector. Her core expertise is in strategy development, establishing innovative service delivery platforms and developing value driven high performing organization culture. As a founding member of WHP, Prachi has successfully led the organization through progressive responsibilities.

Dr. Shubnum

- Director - Medical Education, Medical Research & Advisor – Health Care Framework, Max Healthcare Institute Ltd
- Member Steering Committee, Pradhan Mantri Kushal Vikas Yojna (PMKVY) Government of India
- Governing Board Member and Chairperson, Health Sector Skill Council(HSSC) Advisory Committee on National Occupational Standards
- Governing Board Member and Secretary of Life Sciences Sector Skill Development Council
- Member CII National Committee on Higher Education.
- Member of the Public Health Committee to the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development(OECD).

Dr. Shubnum is an alumnus of Lady Hardinge Medical College, Delhi and has 38 years of experience in the medical profession ranging from a Pathologist, Allergist, and Administrator to Health care Policy Framework and Strategy.

A founder member of Max Healthcare Institute Ltd. She has been actively involved in strategizing and developing different verticals of the business. As CEO of Max Institute of Health Education & Research, she was actively engaged in developing the educational and skilling vertical for the group. Currently as Advisor Healthcare Framework she provides strategic guidance to the group in various projects.

As a pivotal member of the Confederation of Indian Industry (CII) National Healthcare Council for the last 15 years she has spearheaded, and led numerous initiatives and interventions that positively impact the healthcare sector at large. These include multi-stakeholder policy deliberations, developing and building strong industry linkages on pricing of healthcare services in India, Health insurance and reimbursements mechanisms, remodelling higher medical education, catalysing public private partnership opportunities as well as skilling of healthcare/paramedical workers in India.

She is a founder member of the Healthcare Sector Skill Council (HSSC) and Life Sciences Sector Skills Development Council which create a robust and vibrant eco-system for quality vocational skill development in the Healthcare space in India.

As a Clinical Allergist her vision is to grow the discipline, build research capabilities within the scientific community in India by jointly conducting epidemiological research on childhood food allergy and atopy prevalence with Indian and overseas bodies.

She is a Life Member of the South Asia Association of Allergy, Asthma, Clinical Immunology (SAAAACI), Indian College of Allergy, Asthma & Applied Immunology (ICAAAI), American Academy of Allergy, Asthma, and Immunology (AAAAI), Indian Academy of Allergy (IAA) & European Academy of Allergy and Clinical Immunology (EAACI).

Amit Mookim
Managing Director - South Asia
(IMS Health & Quintiles are now) IQVIA

Amit leads the commercial business for IQVIA across South Asia. Amit's responsibility is to leverage IQVIA's global information, analytics and technology assets and people in bringing cutting edge insight and advice to healthcare. IQVIA is a global human data sciences company with approximate 55,000 employees in more than 100 countries.

Prior to IQVIA, Amit was Head of Healthcare at KPMG. Amit was one of the youngest Partners in KPMG and helped the firm build and grow the Private Equity Advisory and Strategy business and also the Healthcare Practice for India and across Asia Pacific. He worked across 11 countries across India and Asia Pacific as part of this role.

In his career span of 18 years, Amit has set up and led successful businesses, mentored startups, partnered with industry and government on policy advisory across Universal Healthcare, Pricing, and Access. He has advised Indian and multinational corporations, funding organizations like the World Bank and DFID, Governments, Private Equity and Venture funds and startups. He is on the core committees of leading industry associations such as FICCI, OPPI, NATHEALTH, and TiE. Amit has also authored a Thought Leadership for the Future of Healthcare forum which was launched by the President of India in 2014.

In his personal capacity, Amit actively promotes the cause of healthcare entrepreneurship in India and is currently mentoring healthcare startups to grow and professionalise. As part of his Board role at TiE, a non-profit organization to support entrepreneurship, Amit has created and set up the healthcare startup community.

The role of this community is to mentor new startups in Healthcare and provide them access to mentors, industry and funding.

Amit has done his Bachelor in Economics from University of Kolkata and hisMBA from FMS, Delhi. Amit believes that spirituality and fitness are the key aspects for personality development. Amit is an amateur marathon runner and also coachesentrepreneurs on managing stress while being centred in spirituality.

Dr. Shравan Subramanyam

Dr. Shравan Subramanyam is the Managing Director for Roche Diagnostics India & Neighboring Markets, comprising Bangladesh, Nepal, Sri Lanka and Bhutan.

Shравan has over 15 years of corporate & healthcare experience. A physician, with a passion for diagnostics, he is particularly keen on exploring 'personalized healthcare', with the goal of providing the right treatment for the right group of patients.

His career spans leadership roles in global pharma/ diagnostics organisations, including Novartis (USA, Hong Kong) and Siemens Healthcare Diagnostics (USA, India). He also briefly managed Ehrlich Laboratory, a private diagnostic center based in Chennai, India.

In addition to a degree in medicine from Madras Medical College, Dr. Subramanyam also holds a Masters' degree in Health Administration at Cornell University, where he served on the alumni board.

At Roche Diagnostics India, he is keen to consistently bring alive Roche's global philosophy of 'Doing Now What Patients Need Next'. Roche's diagnostics solutions in India include oncology, women's health, blood safety, cardio-metabolic and infectious diseases, thereby addressing the diagnostic needs to almost all of India's key health focus areas.